It is submitted on behalf of the petitioners that the allegations are vague so far as these petitioners are concerned. It is further submitted that while the application for grant of anticipatory bail was considered, the complainant on being noticed appeared and submitted that she is living in her matrimonial home and she would have no complaint if she is living well and the parties have entered into the compromise as well. It is submitted that later the complainant did not sign the compromise and as such the same could not be filed in the court. As a matter of fact, the petitioners are still ready to keep the complainant in the matrimonial home with dignity properly.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, let petitioners no.1 to 4 above named, in the event of their arrest or surrender in connection with Complaint Case No.256 of 2008, within a period of four weeks from today, be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (Ten thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the Sub-Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Jehanabad, in connection with the aforesaid case, on the conditions mentioned in sub-section (2) of section 438 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.
